LIVINGSTON CLEGG
MONTGOMERY

L. C. Montgomery was born October 3, 1888, in Heber City, Utah, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery, pioneers.

His early education was received in Heber schools, completing his high school years after serving a mission for the Church in the Northern States from 1908 to 1912. He attended Brigham Young University in Provo and was graduated from the University of Utah law school, returning to Heber City to practice law.

He married Edna Lodell, daughter of Joseph and Martha Lodell of Chicago, Illinois, in the Salt Lake Temple on February 3, 1921. They became the parents of two splendid sons, Robert L. Montgomery, a bank executive, and Edward L. Montgomery, a prominent attorney. There are three grandchildren.

Mr. Montgomery held many offices of trust. He was elected mayor of Heber for one term and was a stalwart member of the Democratic party in Utah. L. C., as he is called, was a fearless defender for the rights of the people of Wasatch County and served as county attorney for 22 years. He was president of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Assn. for 17 years and was named to a trade commission by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate trade practices. In 1941, L. C. was vice president of the American Livestock Assn. An outspoken positivist, Mr. Montgomery's influence was greatly felt in formulation of policies relating to the public domain. L. C. was a former member of the board of trustees of the State University and was a director

LIVINGSTON C. MONTGOMERY, who for many years has handled the legal business of Wasatch County as county attorney, is a resident of Heber City. His name has been connected with nearly every important movement in the business and civic life of that community during the past twenty years.

Mr. Montgomery was born at Heber, October 3, 1888, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann (Clegg) Montgomery. His father was born in Scotland, settled in this district of Utah in 1863 and was a leader in its agricultural development and one of the prominent members of the church. He was a member of the High Council of the church for a quarter of a century.

Livingston C. Montgomery obtained his grammar and high school education at Heber. From the local schools he entered the University of Utah, where he took his LL. B. degree in 1916, and since that date has been a qualified attorney and member of the Heber bar.

He served three years as city attorney. He was first elected county attorney of Wasatch County in 1915. He was again elected in 1919, also in 1925, and his present term of office followed his reelection in 1929.

Mr. Montgomery was active in the organization of the Heber Chamber of Commerce and has had some official responsibility in that body ever since, served as secretary and member of the board of governors and at this time, 1932, is president. He is a member of the Heber Lions Club.

Mr. Montgomery in 1910 was sent on a mission for the church to the northern states, making his headquarters in Chicago and becoming president of the Chicago Conference of the Latter Day Saints. While there he established the first church of the Logan Square branch and organized the Roseland branch. He was for eight years superintendent of the Sunday School at Heber City.

Mr. Montgomery is also interested in ranching and the live stock industry. He is vice president of the Utah State Stock Growers Association and made two trips to Washington to represent that body in matters affecting grazing rights in the state. He was for ten years secretary of the Heber Horse & Cattle Growers Association. Mr. Montgomery is a director of the Bank of Heber City, director of the Heber Mercantile Company, and is a stockholder in the Heber Exchange Company of Heber City.

He married, February 3, 1921, Miss Edna Lodell, of Chicago. They have two children, Robert L. and Edward L.
